

Frontiers in Education

Seattle, Washington • October 3–6, 2012

One author from each paper must register for the conference, even if no author attends or presents the paper in order for the paper to appear in the proceedings.

By registering for FIE, I am giving permission for photos and video images of myself and/or accompanying captions bearing my name to be used in future newsletters, reports, Web pages, and other materials designed to promote the work of FIE. I can withhold this permission by contacting Kevin Curry, Assistant to General Chair, in writing or by email and stating that I wish to withhold permission to use my image and/or name.

Wednesday Preconference Workshops

You must register for the conference to attend the workshops. The additional workshop fee includes admission to the workshop selected, materials and workshop notes. The workshop schedule with more detailed information can be found on the FIE home page, www.fie2012.org.

On Wednesday afternoon and evening, FIE will feature three-hour workshops—highly interactive sessions selected for their timeliness and value. Workshops provide concentrated professional development and the range of topics offers opportunities for everyone from new faculty members to the most experienced educators to expand their skills and knowledge.

Registration for individual workshops is required, and each carries a nominal fee.

Session 1: 1:30–4:30 p.m.

- Workshop 1A —A Workshop on How Learning Works
- Workshop 2A —Learning Agile Through Active Learning
- Workshop 3A —Assessing Professional Skills for ABET
- Workshop 4A —What Were We Thinking? Critically Examining Our Beliefs About the Purposes and Goals of Engineering and Engineering Education
- Workshop 5A —Building Learning Tools Using IMS Learning Tools Interoperability
- Workshop 7A —Teaching Computer Security Literacy to the Masses: A Practical Approach

Session 2: 5:30–8:30 p.m.

- Workshop 1B —Evaluation of Educational Research and Development Projects
- Workshop 2B —Using Student Scrums for Course and Capstone Projects
- Workshop 3B —Training Students to Become Better Raters: Raising the Quality of Self- and Peer-Evaluations Using a New Feature of the CATME System
- Workshop 4B —Teaching Engineering Design to Middle and High School Students Using STEAM Machines™
- Workshop 6B —Project-Enhanced Learning in Engineering Science Education
- Workshop 7B —It's More Than Coding: Using Video Scenarios to Engage Students in Computing

Fee Structure:

- One workshop $50
- Two workshops $100

KU Continuing Education does not share, sell, or rent its mailing lists. You have our assurance that any information you provide will be held in confidence by KU Continuing Education.

We occasionally use mailing lists that we have leased. If you receive unwanted communication from KUCE, it is because your name appears on a list we have acquired from another source. In this case, please accept our apologies.

Program Accessibility

We accommodate persons with disabilities. Please call 785-864-5823 or mark the space on the registration form, and a KU Continuing Education representative will contact you to discuss your needs. To ensure accommodation, please register at least two weeks before the start of the conference.

The University of Kansas is committed to providing programs and activities to all persons, regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, disability, and veteran status. In addition, university policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, marital status, and parental status.

Refund and Cancellation Policy

We encourage you to send a substitute if you cannot attend. A full refund of registration fees, less a $50 administrative fee, will be available if requested in writing and received by September 19, 2012. No refunds will be made after that date. A $30 fee also will be charged for returned checks. (Please note that if you fail to cancel by the deadline and do not attend, you are still responsible for payment.) KU Continuing Education reserves the right to cancel the conference and return all fees in the event of insufficient registration. The liability of the University of Kansas is limited to the registration fee. The University of Kansas will not be responsible for any losses incurred by registrants, including but not limited to airline cancellation charges or hotel deposits.
